

Traveler rating:  5.0
San Francisco: La Luna Inn: "Great Place!!!"
✉ ladyd088, USA Apr 26, 2007

CHECK RATES!

Stayed for 2 nights. Found the inn pretty quickly. We were able to check in early and were able to select a room on the more quiet side (ie: no street side). The room was clean and we were very pleased with the size and comfort.

A big plus is that Denny's and Mel's Diner are just down the street and open late (as we were there in town for 2 concerts and got home late every night).

Cleaning service was great. Room looked and smelled fresh when we would arrive back.

Inn personnel was great and friendly. We did not part take in the morning breakfast - we just were not up that early.

We will be staying at this inn again when in the SF area. The rate was beyond great for the area ($65/night at this time). We booked direct with the website of the inn as it was the least expensive way.

We highly recommend this inn.

Traveler rating:  5.0
San Francisco: La Luna Inn: "Very Nice Hotel"
✉ phillyqxx1, South Bend,In. Apr 16, 2007

CHECK RATES!

Stayed at the La Luna on the 31st of march only stayed one night was on our way to Reno, Nevada. We stayed on the third floor with a beautiful view of the golden gate bridge out of our balcony window .The room was even nicer than as described on their website. It was a very large room with a desk and two comfortable chairs, The bed was pillow top and was new. The t.v was a 27 inch flat screen that had all the channels. The hotel was within walking distance to the IHOP, Mel's drive in, Amici's pizza parlor and a Walgreen's .Fisberman wharf was a little further but it still wasn't that bad of a walk. Was what seemed to be a very safe neighborhood .I 'm sorry if I went too long but I wanted you to know what you were getting into if you stay at the La Luna inn. Also forgot too mention the front desk help (TIM )was very knowledgeable and helpful with directions and bus numbers to the various places we wanted to go and see. I highly recommend this hotel.

Traveler rating:  5.0
San Francisco: La Luna Inn: "loved the city and the great hotel made it even better"
✉ timnewyork, new york Mar 26, 2007

CHECK RATES!

The room was exctly as the picture online. Clean and very comfortable. Staff was vey helpful and pleasant. Laluna is a great place to stay in the city. I will stay again and again at this property.

This TripAdvisor Member:

Liked: amazing beds, incredibly clean rooms and awsome front desk staff

Disliked: being on the main street

Traveler rating:  5.0

San Francisco: La Luna Inn: "Excellent deal- I highly recommend this place!"

 langurl, california Feb 25, 2007

CHECK RATES!

We just got back from a trip to S.F. and figured we would look for a hotel when we got there. After a few trips into various hotel offices- we hit on La Luna and loved it! It was a lot LESS than we was expecting to pay (most were around $200 PLUS $35 to park). We stayed Sun- Tuesday and paid $80 a night, with free parking. The room we had was small but I really liked the color scheme and it was very recently re-done- everything looked new. We were in a one bedroom, the two bedrooms looked a lot bigger. La Luna also offers a continental breakfast: milk, orange and apple juice, hot chocolate, coffee, toast, and the best muffins! The staff was very friendly and accomodating, I would highly recommend this place to my friends and family.

This TripAdvisor Member:

Liked: decor

Disliked

Traveler rating:  5.0

San Francisco: La Luna Inn: "What a find!"

 californiainuk, brighton, uk Jan 2, 2007

CHECK RATES!

It was the night before New Years Eve and we still hadn't booked a hotel in SF. I was surfing around, and the best rate I could find anywhere was $269...I realise that it was NYE, but that was not the price I felt like paying. Found this place ,and thought we'd give it a try.

We couldn't fault it if we tried. The service/reception were very helpful and friendly. We stayed in room 318: a huge California King pillowtop bed, immaculately clean, cute toiletries in the bathroom, modern design and furniture, great location in the Marina, and the room was really big. Obviously it's not the Four Seasons, but if you aren't looking for uber-luxury but are picky about cleanliness, this place is a gem especially for the price. We were pleasantly surprised, and will definitely stay again.

Traveler rating:  4.0

San Francisco: La Luna Inn: "Clean, Tidy and Central."

 L&ADodd, Australia Nov 13, 2006

CHECK RATES!

We had a great stay. Staff were helpful and friendly. Our first visit to America and our first Port of call. We found it to be Clean, Tidy and central to Fisherman's Wharf. Accomodation was a great price and even though it is situated on a very busy street, it was not that noisy. We slept well, and that was all that matters when you are only in your room to sleep and shower.

This TripAdvisor Member:

Liked: Location

Tips/Secrets: Ear plugs for Fog Horn at night (in San Francisco Bay Area)

